

PUBLIC NOTICE

Following the approval of EAC Quality Award Scheme aiming at deepening the culture of quality in the East Africa Community Society in the pursuit of quality excellence, by using the Quality Awards as a tool to stimulate the uptake of standards for improving quality, safety and protection of the environment; and serving as a platform for cross-country experience-sharing on quality promotion among participating organizations; EAC secretariat in collaboration with National Standards Bodies of Partner States is organizing the first EAC Annual Quality Award event in September 2022.

The first EAC Quality Award initiative is bringing together Micro, Small, Medium and Large Enterprises in Manufacturing and service provision in all fields for competition and recognition at EAC level. The competition starts at Partner States level and most four competitive companies will be selected in each Partner State to represent each country at EAC level to select the EAC Best Product and Best Service Company of the year and runner-up from SME and Large Enterprise categories and will be awarded.

RSB is therefore inviting any willing Enterprise whether being Micro, Small, Medium or Large to participate in the competition open for all categories and sectors of interest. All interested enterprises working either in food processing or non-food manufacturing such as chemistry, engineering and IT among others; are invited to participate in this competition. Please note that RSB in collaboration with the National Quality Award Committee will select and award best performers and runner up in each category (Product and Service provision of Small and Large Enterprise).

All enterprises interested to participate in the competition are requested to fill the open call application form available from RSB Website and send it back at info@rsb.gov.rw not later than Wednesday 27th July 2022.

For any additional information regarding this competition, please contact Mr. Francois Nsengiyumva, in charge of coordinating all activities pertaining to the organization of EAC Quality Awards 2022 at national level, at francois.nsengiyumva@rsb.gov.rw or call him on 0788786293/0730419939.

Sincerely,

MURENZI Raymond
